Warſaw, March 3, N. S.

THE Biſhop of Cujavia has ſent hither from Czenſtockow a Letter he had received from the Palatin of Lublin, which mentions Lieutenant General Birckholtz's being taken Priſoner, and wounded in two or three Places, but not mortally, and that the Palatin offers to exchange him againſt the Primate. He tells the Biſhop he could have done much more Miſchief to the Saxons, and pretends to make a Merit of having ſpared them: He propoſes an Armiſtice, and that his Troops may remain in the Palatinates of Poſen and Kaliſh, and that he may have the Permiſſion of ſending an Hundred Perſons to Koningsberg, having had no Account of late from thence, though he had ſent to deſire forthwith a poſitive Anſwer to ſeveral Points, before he could enter into a Negociation with this Court. The Palatins of Volhinia and Vitepsk have ſignified to the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg their being diſpoſed to ſubmit to King Auguſtus, upon certain Conditions, which it is ſaid the Court can't well accept, but make no Doubt thoſe Palatins will come to more reaſonable Terms ſoon. The firſt is Potocki, who commands a Diviſion that has been in and about the Palatinate of Volhinia; and the other is a Perſon of Credit and Intereſt in Lithuania, who has alſo ſome Troops under his Command. M. Poccey has been marching his Diviſion about that Dutchy, where the Ruſſians were not, and is ſaid to be now returning to Breſez. The Armiſtice with the Palatin of Kiovy is prolonged for ten Days. The General Council ended Yeſterday, pretty much to the Satisfaction of all preſent. Colonel Sibilsky is gone in Purſuit after the Palatin of Lublin and the Confederates, with 500 Light Horſe, which are to be joined by 500 Ruſſian Dragoons, 200 Foot, and ſome Pieces of Cannon. The Firſt Inſtant 500 of the Crown Guards arrived from Brody, where they capitulated with the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg, and at the ſame time ſubmitted themſelves to King Auguſtus. A Ruſſian Regiment of Foot is coming hither to aſſiſt the Saxons in their Duty, a great Part of them being ſick. In the Regiment of Prince Xavier, there are above 600 incapable of Service, and 150 already dead of the Spotted Fever, which begins to communicate among the Inhabitants of this Place. In the Neighbouring Villages we hear of abundance of Poor People dying for want of Suſtenance; and the Deſolation is ſo great every where, that the Plague is much feared. The Officers named to command the 6000 Saxons to be ſent upon the Rhine, are, Lieutenant General Friſe, Count Rudowski, and Baron Lewendahl, Major Generals.

Berlin, March 12, N. S. Beſides the Advantage obtained by the Poles over the Saxon Party commanded by General Birckholtz, we hear there has been another little Action at a ſmall Fort or Caſtle, called Karga, upon the River Warta, where there was a Saxon Garriſon, which was forced to ſurrender: Since then, the Poles, to the Number of 18 or 20000 Men, are come to the Banks of the Oder, their Deſign being, as 'tis publickly affirmed, to make an Irruption into Luſatia and Saxony; and ſome Advices from the Frontiers ſay, great Numbers of them have actually paſſed that River at Croſſen, a Town belonging to his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Dublin, March 1.

This being Her Majeſty's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon the Lords Juſtices met at the Caſtle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, before whom an Ode, ſet to Muſick, was performed: At Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other uſual Demonſtrations of Joy.
